Lent reflection from LICC

How often do we experience a moment of deep encounter with God – one that reassures us of our identity and calling – then quickly be followed by challenge, discouragement, or even spiritual attack. The enemy's strategy hasn't changed – sowing doubt about who we are and whether God is truly with and for us.

Yet, could it be that these moments of encounter with God and assurance are meant to equip us for what follows? Rather than being disconnected events, the highs and lows work together – God strengthens us in his presence so that we can step into his mission with resilience.

Recruitment of a Youth Minister

The PCC is pleased to announce we are now advertising for a Youth Minister to support and build on the amazing work Kirstie and her team are doing with our Young People. Jointly working with St John's and Christ Church we look forward to developing Youth Work across the churches. For more information, please see our website, the PCC board or talk to Jenny.

'Care'

An Evening of worship and prayer for our nation
