I AM

Summer Sermon Series – I am Statements

Our summer sermon series started at our All Around the Altar service with John 15:1–17, where Jesus uses the beautiful, intimate imagery of the vine and the branches. He calls us away from striving and invites us into a life of "abiding"—remaining deeply connected to Him as our source of life, joy, and purpose. As the Heavenly Father gently prunes us for growth, we discover that true fruitfulness flows from resting in Christ’s love, not our own strength.

Message from Elizabeth. God is so good

On 6th June I had the honour to be the proud mum of Paul Woodman. He was installed at Winchester Cathedral as Ecumenical Canon. It was at the evensong service and very emotional and a pleasure to join in. The service is on YouTube. Paul was a member of our church and youth club until he went to university. He had nearly completed the course to become a professor but gave it all up to work for City Life church, doing magic tricks and evangelism at all different places. He did a crane escape at Salisbury showing that Jesus sets us free. Now he is well known in Southampton, working with students and young people, refugees and the homeless and leads many interdenominational events. I thank God for being there for him and encouraging him each day. I believe God honours what we do for him a thousand times more than we can ever do for him.
